

Dance Dojo Dance

Studio Policies

All students must register as a member of Dance Dojo Dance and sign the Liability Release document before taking any classes.

Please arrive at least 10 minutes prior to the start of class and check in (regardless of payment method) before class starts.

Drop in classes are $15.00. Payment must be made right before class.

Specialty classes and events may have special pricing.

Multi Class Punch Card sales are final. There are not refunds for punch cards including lost or stolen cards.

Cash, credit cards, and checks are accepted as payment methods.

Refunds are at the discretion of Dance Dojo Dance. They are not guaranteed. You must come into the studio to get a refund.

Please refrain from taking photos and videos of the studio and during classes. If you would like to take photos or videos please do so under studio owner's consent.

Please dress with workout attire and proper footwear.

Personal belongings are not permitted on the dance floor. Please place personal possessions in the designated area.

For the safety of all participants, please refrain from entering the dance floor with muddy or wet street shoes.

Dance Dojo Dance and its instructors are not liable for any injuries sustained while in class or on the building and surrounding areas. Please notify instructor (s) if you have concerns about injuries or physical problems. Please exercise at your own pace and honor your body and exercise capacity level.

Please bring a towel to clean sweat from yourself and the dance floor.

Please refrain from chewing gum during class and in the studio.

No food or drinks with the exception of water are permitted in the studio. Water must be kept in a tightly closed container. Water is not permitted on the dance floor. Water containers must be stored in the designated area(s).

Dance Dojo Dance is a non-smoking facility.

Pets are not allowed in the studio.

Please do not leave your car parked at the studio outside of class hours.

As a matter of respect for instructor (s) and classmates, students are to keep talking to a minimum during dancing time.

While we will attempt to notify students of upcoming schedule changes, class times and instructors are subject to change without notice.

Students are expected to respect instructors and classmates just as instructors are expected to respect students.

Children

We do not provide childcare at Dance Dojo Dance. Children must be kept under parent or guardian supervision at every moment, within the studio and surrounding areas.

Children not participating in class must remain seated. Stationary activities are welcome (homework, coloring, etc.) No moving toys are permitted in the studio (cars, balls, etc.).

Children age 13 and over may participate in Dance Dojo Dance classes. Parent discretion is advised given this is an adult class and some music and movements are of adult nature. Children must pay the regular adult price for classes.
